

Mustafia Sharif Charity Data Protection Policy

1. INTRODUCTION:

1.1. Mustafia Sharif, “the Charity” is the Data Controller for the purposes of the UK data protection act (2018) which is the UK’s implementation of the GDPR. The charity is responsible for making sure the information is used fairly, lawfully and transparently.

1.2. The Charity collects and uses certain types of personal information about the following categories of individuals (including employees or public donors):

1.21 Employees, both directly recruited and those employees assigned by the UK government “Kickstart Scheme”

1.22 Volunteers and Trustees

1.23 Consultants commissioned by the Charity to enact the management of its affairs on behalf of the trustees

1.24 Other individuals such as Tutors, Coaches and senior managers of other charitable trusts who come into contact with the Charity and its research and dissemination activities

1.25 Educational providers, advisers, evaluators, trainers and supporters working with the Charity on research projects and the dissemination of research outcomes through conferences, seminars and multimedia publications

1.3. The Charity will process this personal information in the following ways:

1.31 collect the full names, email addresses, and other necessary contact details such as telephone numbers of all categories of individuals listed in clause 1.2 above which shall be held and controlled for the legitimate processing of such data to ensure effective communications in the reasonable pursuance of the charitable, public benefit functions of the Charity

1.32 collect the full name, contact details and home address of volunteers in order to keep a consistent pool of volunteers accessible to the charity for any sufficient need in the operations/running/events of the charity

1.33 collect the full name, contact details, bank details and home addresses of paid employees in order to process payments/wage packages to these individuals once a month based on 25 hours a week at the national minimum wage rate for their age category.

1.34 undertake other processing when required to comply with any statutory and other legal obligation as and when required by the UK GDPR threshold.

1.35 This policy is intended to ensure that personal information is dealt with properly and securely and in accordance with the UK General Data Protection Regulation of 2018 (the “GDPR”) and other related legislation. It will apply to information regardless of the way it is used or recorded and applies for as long as the information is held.

1.36 This policy will be updated as necessary to reflect best practice, or amendments made to the Data protection act 2018 UK GDPR, and shall be reviewed every year on January 1st taking into consideration any necessary adjustments, changes and/or improvements which have been identified in the previous year.

1.35 The GDPR applies to all computerised data and manual files which contains and all sensitive data (as outlined in 1.355) relating to the charity, its employees, volunteers and trustees.

1.355 Sensitive data refers to any information held by the charity will NOT be disclosed without authorisation from the person/people concerned. This includes, but is not limited to, Home Address, Sexual Orientation, Bank Details, National Insurance and all other information related to the individual in question, which isn't freely accessible otherwise. Further outlined within "Personal Data 2.1"

2. Personal Data

2.1 'Personal data' is information that identifies an individual, and includes information that would identify an individual to the person to whom it is disclosed because of any special knowledge that they have or can obtain. A sub-set of personal data is known as 'special category personal data'. This special category data is information that relates to:

2.1.1. race or ethnic origin;

2.1.2. political opinions;

2.1.3. religious or philosophical beliefs

2.1.4. physical or mental health

2.1.5 genetic or biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person.

2.2 The Charity will, where applicable, give the highest priority to securing the data of its employees, volunteers and trustees.

2.3 Any personal data held by the Charity is purely for Administration and professional means and may not be held by the charity for more than 48 hours after an individual has left the charity, either from their role as an employee, volunteer or trustee.

2.4 The destruction of data pertaining to these individuals will be destroyed securely, both manual files and nonphysical data. This will be done in a timely manner and will not have the potential to be leaked or mishandled to the general population and/or non-authorised personnel.

2.5 Furthermore, personal data which is held by the charity will not be shared with 3rd party individuals under any circumstances

3. The Data protection principles

3.1.1. personal data shall be processed fairly, lawfully and in a transparent manner, and processing shall not be lawful unless one of the processing conditions can be met;

3.1.2. personal data shall be collected for specific, explicit, and legitimate purposes, and shall not be further processed in a manner incompatible with those purposes;

3.1.3. personal data shall be adequate, relevant, and limited to what is necessary for the purpose(s) for which it is being processed

3.1.4. personal data shall be accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date

3.1.5. personal data processed for any purpose(s) shall not be kept for longer than is necessary for that purpose/those purposes

3.1.6. personal data shall be processed in such a way that ensures appropriate security of the data, including protection against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction, or damage, using appropriate technical or organisational measures

3.2. In addition to this, the Charity is committed to ensuring that at all times, anyone dealing with personal data shall be mindful of the individual's rights under the law

3.3. The Charity is committed to complying with the principles in 3.1 at all times.

This means that the Charity will:

3.3.1. inform individuals as to the purpose of collecting any information from them, as and when we ask for it

3.3.2. be responsible for checking the quality and accuracy of the information

3.3.3. regularly review the records held to ensure that information is not held longer than is necessary, and that it has been held in accordance with the Records Retention Policy

3.3.4. ensure that when information is authorised for disposal it is done appropriately

3.3.5. ensure appropriate security measures to safeguard personal information whether it is held in paper files or on our computer system, and follow the relevant security policy requirements at all times

3.3.6. share personal information with others only when it is necessary and legally appropriate to do so

3.3.7. set out clear procedures for responding to requests for access to personal information known as subject access requests

3.3.8. report any breaches of the Data protection act 2018 UK GDPR in accordance with the procedure

4. Conditions for processing in the first GDPR principle

4.1. The individual has given consent that is specific to the particular type of processing activity, and that consent is informed, unambiguous and freely given;

4.2. The processing is necessary for the performance of a contract, to which the individual is a party, or is necessary for the purpose of taking steps with regard to entering into a contract with the individual, at their request;

4.3. The processing is necessary for the performance of a legal obligation to which we are subject;

4.4. The processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of the individual or another;

4.5. The processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest, or in the exercise of official authority vested in us;

4.6. The processing is necessary for a legitimate interest of the Charity or that of a third party, except where this interest is overridden by the rights and freedoms of the individual concerned. More details of this are given in the Privacy Policy Notice

5. Disclosure of personal data

5.1. The following list includes the most usual reasons that the Charity will authorise disclosure of personal data to a third party:

5.1.1. to give a confidential reference relating to a current or former consultant;

5.1.2. for the prevention or detection of crime

5.1.3. for the assessment of any tax or duty;

5.1.4. where it is necessary to exercise a right or obligation conferred or imposed by law upon the Charity;

5.1.5. for the purpose of, or in connection with, legal proceedings (including prospective legal proceedings);

5.1.6. for the purpose of obtaining legal advice;

5.1.7. for research, historical and statistical purposes (so long as this neither supports decisions in relation to individuals, nor causes substantial damage or distress);

5.1.8. any investigation by a statutory authority or regulator

5.2. The Charity may receive requests from third parties (i.e., those other than the data subject, the Charity, and its consultants, professional advisers and service providers) to disclose personal data it holds about individuals. This information will not generally be disclosed unless one of the specific exemptions under the Data protection act 2018 UK GDPR which allow disclosure applies, or where disclosure is necessary for the legitimate interests of the third party concerned or the Charity.

5.3. All requests for the disclosure of personal data must be sent to The Charity CEO who will review and decide whether to make the disclosure, ensuring that reasonable steps are taken to verify the identity of the requesting third party before making any disclosure

6. Security for personal data

6.1. The Charity will take reasonable steps to ensure that trustees, consultants and third-party advisers and service providers will only have access to personal data where it is necessary for them to carry out their duties. All such persons will be made aware of this Policy and their duties under the Data protection act 2018 UK GDPR. The Charity will take all reasonable steps to ensure that all personal information is held securely and is not accessible to unauthorised persons, under any circumstances and to do so, would be considered a breach of security for the charity and will constitute criminal proceedings.

7. Subject access request

7.1 Anyone who requests access to any personal information held about them by the charity is making a subject request. All information held, both electronically and manually, should be considered for disclosure within the guidelines set out by the 2018 UK GDPR

7.2. All requests should be sent to the Company CEO within 3 working days of receipt, and must be dealt with in full without delay and at the latest within one month of receipt.

7.3. Any individual may appoint another person to request access to their records. In such circumstances the Charity must have written evidence that the individual has authorised the person to make the application and the Company CEO must be confident of the identity of the individual making the request and of the authorisation of the individual to whom the request relates.

7.4. Access to records will be refused in instances where an exemption applies, for example, information sharing may place the individual at risk of significant harm or jeopardise police investigations into any alleged offence(s)

7.5. A subject access request must be made in writing. The Charity may ask for any further information reasonably required to locate the information.

7.6. An individual only has the automatic right to access information about themselves, and care needs to be taken not to disclose the personal data of third parties where consent has not been given, or where seeking consent would not be reasonable, and it would not be appropriate to release the information. Particular care must be taken in the case of any complaint or dispute to ensure confidentiality is protected.

7.7. All files must be reviewed by the Company CEO before any disclosure takes place. Access will not be granted before this review has taken place.

8. Other rights of individuals

8.1. The Charity has an obligation to comply with the rights of individuals under the law, and takes these rights seriously. The following section sets out how the Charity will comply with the rights to:

8.1.1. object to processing;

8.1.2. rectification;

8.1.3. erasure; and 8.1.4. data portability.

Right to object to processing

8.2. An individual has the right to object to the processing of their personal data on the grounds of pursuit of a public interest or legitimate interest where they do not believe that those grounds are made out.

8.3. Where such an objection is made, it must be sent to the Company CEO within 2 working days of receipt, and the Company CEO will assess whether there are compelling legitimate grounds to continue processing which override the interests, rights and freedoms of the individuals, or whether the information is required for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal proceedings.

8.4. The Company CEO shall be responsible for notifying the individual of the outcome of their assessment within 20 working days of receipt of the objection.

Right to rectification

8.5. An individual has the right to request the rectification of inaccurate data without undue delay. Where any request for rectification is received, it should be sent to the Company CEO within 2 working days of receipt, and where adequate proof of inaccuracy is given, the data shall be amended as soon as reasonably practicable, and the individual notified.

8.6. Where there is a dispute as to the accuracy of the data, the request and reasons for refusal shall be noted alongside the data, and communicated to the individual. The individual shall be given the option of a review under the complaint's procedure, or an appeal direct to the Information Commissioner.

8.7. An individual also has a right to have incomplete information completed by providing the missing data, and any information submitted in this way shall be updated without undue delay.

Right to erasure

8.8. Individuals have a right, in certain circumstances, to have data permanently erased without undue delay. This right arises in the following circumstances:

8.8.1. where the personal data is no longer necessary for the purpose or purposes for which it was collected and processed;

8.8.2. where consent is withdrawn and there is no other legal basis for the processing;

8.8.3. where an objection has been raised under the right to object, and found to be legitimate;

8.8.4. where personal data is being unlawfully processed (usually where one of the conditions for processing cannot be met);

8.8.5. where there is a legal obligation on the Charity to delete.

8.9. The Company CEO will make a decision regarding any application for erasure of personal data, and will balance the request against the exemptions provided for in the law. Where a decision is made to erase the data, and this data has been passed to other controllers, and/or has been made public, reasonable attempts to inform those controllers of the request shall be made

Right to restrict processing

8.10. In the following circumstances, processing of an individual's personal data may be restricted:

8.10.1. where the accuracy of data has been contested, during the period when the Charity is attempting to verify the accuracy of the data;

8.10.2. where processing has been found to be unlawful, and the individual has asked that there be a restriction on processing rather than erasure;

8.10.3. where data would normally be deleted, but the individual has requested that their information be kept for the purpose of the establishment, exercise or defence of a legal claim

9. Breach of any requirement of the GDPR

9.1. Any and all breaches of the DPA, including a breach of any of the data protection principles shall be reported as soon as it is discovered, to the Company CEO.

9.2. Once notified, the Company CEO shall assess:

9.2.1. the extent of the breach;

9.2.2. the risks to the data subjects as a consequence of the breach;

9.2.3. any security measures in place that will protect the information;

9.2.4. any measures that can be taken immediately to mitigate the risk to the individuals.

9.3. Unless the Company CEO concludes that there is unlikely to be any risk to individuals from the breach, it must be notified to the Information Commissioner's Office within 72 hours of the breach having come to the attention of the Charity, unless a delay can be justified.

9.4. The Information Commissioner shall be told:

9.4.1. details of the breach, including the volume of data at risk, and the number and categories of data subjects;

9.4.2. the contact point for any enquiries (which shall usually be the Company CEO or the Chair of the Trustees);

9.4.3. the likely consequences of the breach; and

9.4.4. measures proposed or already taken to address the breach.

9.5. If the breach is likely to result in a high risk to the rights and freedoms of the affected individuals then the Company Secretary shall notify data subjects of the breach without undue delay unless the data would be unintelligible to those not authorised to access it, or measures have been taken to mitigate any risk to the affected individuals.

9.6. Data subjects shall be told:

9.6.1. the nature of the breach; 9.6.2. who to contact with any questions; and

9.6.3. measures taken to mitigate any risks.

9.7. The Company CEO shall then be responsible for instigating an investigation into the breach, including how it happened, and whether it could have been prevented. Any recommendations for further training or a change in procedure shall be reviewed by the trustees and a decision made about implementation of those recommendations

9.8 Any breach will be dealt with according to the UK Data protection act 2018 (GDPR). Although Mustafia Sharif is committed to the safeguarding of data it holds on employees, volunteers, trustees and donators.
